Writing a Formal Complaint Letter

Plan a clear, polite complaint

Name: _____ Group: _____ Date: _____

Your situation

You are Hamid Al Salmi, an instructor in the electrical workshop. During a check, you find that some first aid supplies are missing. Write to the college director to report the concern and request appropriate action. Do not invent an injury or blame a person.

A. Identify the reader and purpose

1. Who will receive the letter? _____
2. What is the problem? _____
3. What action should the reader arrange? _____

B. Make the wording professional

Rewrite each phrase as a polite, factual sentence or request.

1. “Fix it now!”

Rewrite without blaming

2. “You never check anything.”

Request a reply

3. “Give us an answer.”

C. Organize your ideas

Letter part	My key point
Problem
Possible impact
Requested action

Writing a Formal Complaint Letter

Write, check and improve

Name: _____ Group: _____ Date: _____

D. Write about 100-120 words

Include a suitable greeting, a clear purpose, the factual problem, a possible impact, a polite request and an appropriate closing.

E. Check before submitting

- [ ] My reader and purpose are clear.
- [ ] I described the problem without inventing blame.
- [ ] I requested a specific action politely.
- [ ] I checked the greeting, closing and organization.
- [ ] I checked the word count, spelling and punctuation.

F. Improve one sentence

Rewrite one sentence from your letter to make it clearer or more professional.